OFFICE OF THE MUZRAI COMMISSIONER IN MYSORE

Bangalore, ... 21st June 1944

Revenue 287-43-1

FROM Rajasevaprasakta
P. Seshadri, Esq., M.A.,
The Muzrai Commissioner in Mysore,

To

T. Subba Rao, Esq., B.A.,
General Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

Transfer of lands - Sri Tamardhanaswami Inam to that of Sri Chennakeshavaswamy at Anekere, Chennarayapatna Taluq, and treating as Inam.

I have the honor to state that the marginally noted S.No. of Anekere, Chennarayapatna Taluq, said to have been originally endowed as inam to Sri Keshavadevaru and Sri Narasimhaswami Temple at the place. The inam was resumed at the time of the Inam Settlement, as the pujaris was unable to keep the temple in good repairs. But the lands have been in the possession of the temple as Sirkar lands.

2. The records show that the image of Sri Chennakeshavaswami which was originally installed, had been removed by some people, long ago; that, thereafter, the image of Sri Tamaradhanaswami was installed and the institution is since being called after that name: and that, subsequently, even this image was mutilated, but the villagers installed a newly-prepared image of Sri Chennakeshavaswami after renovating the temple, per sanction conveyed in this office order No. I Inm.93/31-32 dated 3rd October 1931 (copy, in the records).

3. On the report made by the local officers, the Deputy Commissioner has ordered the transfer of the khata of the lands from the name of Sri Tamardhanaswami to that of Sri Chennakeshavaswamy, and has recommended that, if the temple had originally been inam, after confirmation by the Commissioner for Settlement and Land Records, Government may be moved to convert the Sirkar lands now in the enjoyment of the temple, as Inam. A copy of the Deputy Commissioner's letter dated 12th June 1944, is enclosed.

4. The Commissioner for Settlement and Land Records on the subject, has confirmed the above facts on verification of the in the Inam Register, and states that, as the lands (formerly inam) have continuously in the possession of the temple, and, as the temple has been renovated and the idol newly consecrated, the proposal of the Deputy Commissioner, to restore the lands to their former tenure as inam with its original modi, may be favourably considered. His letter dated 6th May 1944 is enclosed for reference.

5. In the above circumstances, I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained to the recommendation of the Deputy Commissioner, to restore the lands to their former inam tenure, with their original modi.

The file of vernacular records accompanies for reference.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

Re. affairs of Sri Janardhanaswamy temple at Anekere, Chennarayanadu

In forwarding herewith correspondence ending with Memo No.M.C 2186/42-43 ted 3-12-43 from the Sub Division Officer, Hassan on thex above subject, I ave the honor to state that the above temple which was hitherto a Village in- titution, was converted into minor and a scale also sanctioned, a copy of hich is submitted to you with my No.D.Dis.M.C.1542/43-44 dated 20-12-43.

One Mr. Muthusastri, a resident of the village has in his application esented to me, brought to notice that this temple was originally dedicated t i Chennakeshavaswamy with some inam lands prior to Inam Settlement, that the ame having become unfit for worship, the idol of Sri Janardhana Swamy has en installed at the time of Inam Settlement when the inam tenure in favour o. ennakeshavaswamy was cancelled, the lands were treated as sirkar and the kha e in the name of Sri Janardhanaswamy newly installed. The applicant furthe tes that even this image of Sri Janardhanaswamy having been broken, the tem- building which was in a ruinous condition was renovated and the idol of Sri nnakeshaswamy was re-installed in the temple in the year 1936. The applican ys that the khate of the lands may be made in the name of Sri Chennakeshava my and the lands restored as inam as was prior to inam settlement.

The Amildar reports that it is ascertained that the image of Sri Chennakes swamy, originally installed was taken away by some people about 200 years that afterwards the image of Sri Janardhanaswamy was installed in the le and since then the institution was being called after its name. The dar further reports that even this image was found to be broken, this image replaced by the idol of Sri Chennakeshavaswamy and the temple also was re- ted in the year 1936 as per your Order No.D1.Dis.68/31-32 dated 28-10-1931 osed on page 18 in the file. The Amildar and the Sub Division Officer re- end that the khate of the lands which stands in the name of Sri Janardhana- may be ordered to be made in the name of Sri Chennakeshavaswamy. The ar further reports that there are no references to show that the temple een endowed with inam lands prior to Inam Settlement.

In the circumstances explained, I have ordered the change of khate in the of Sri Chennakeshavaswamy and instructed the local officers to adopt the of this deity in all official accounts and correspondence in future.

s regards the prayer of Mr. Muthu Sastri for treatment of the lands as s before, I request that the Commissioner of Land Records and Inam Settle may kindly be addressed to ascertain if the temple had originally land endowed to it and if so a recommendation may be made to Government to t the Sirkar lands now in enjoyment of the temple as Inam.

No.I.B.510/43-44 dated 6th May 1944 from the Commissioner for nd Land Records in Mysore, to the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore.

Subject:- Treating, as Inam, S.Nos.83, 60, 196 and 264 of Anekere Villag Channarayapatna Taluk, transferred from the Janardanaswamy Temple Khat to that of Sri Channakesavaswamy temple at the place.

With reference to your letter No.Ml.2600/43-44 dated 8th Fenruary 1944 forwarding the records on the above subject, and requesting for my opinion in the matter, I have the honor to state as follows:-

From the Inam Settlement Register pertaining to the above village it is seen that a land Inam having a beriz of Rs 17-7-4 with a Jodi of Rs 8-11-9 was registered in the names of Kesavadevaru and Janardanaswamy and that the same has been ordered to be resumed at the time of Inam Settlement itself, the Amildar of the Taluk having reported that the Pujari is unable to keep the temple in good repair.

From the recitals in the Inam Register it is seen that the idol in the temple was originally Kesavadevaru and that the Idol of Janardanadevaru was subsequently consecrated as the former was broken.

The records received with your letter show however that the latter idol is also since broken and that the image of Sri Channakesavadevaru has been newly consecrated and that the lands (formerly Inam) have been continuously in the possession of the temple on Raiyatwari tenure.

As the temple is stated to have been renovated and the idol newly consecrated, the proposal of the Deputy Commissioner to restore the lands to its former tenure as Inam with its original Jodi may perhaps be favourably conside The matter is however one for orders of Government.

The records received with your letter are returned herewith.
